Presenters

TELACU Residential Management, Inc.
Beatriz Camarena - Bcamarena@telacu.com
TELACU A pioneering institution committed to service, empowerment, advancement, and the creation of self-sufficiency.

The People Concern
Marybeth Arias - Marias@thepeopleconcern.org
The People Concern believes no one should have to live on the street or in a violent household. Their staff, volunteers and those we serve work together to address the effects of homelessness, poverty, mental and physical illness, abuse and addiction. Their programs empower the most vulnerable among us to improve their quality of life – housed, healthy and safe – and become active participants in the community. They also work to educate the broader community and improve public policy.

Uncle Dave's Transitional Housing
David Wohlman - Uncledaveshousing@yahoo.com
Uncle Dave's Housing mission is to provide safe and affordable housing for men in South Los Angeles. Uncle Dave's Housing helps men transition back into society and find permanent housing.

Hollywood-Wilshire Wellness Community
Armen Ter-Barsegyan - ATer-Barsegyan2@ph.lacounty.gov
Los Angeles County Department of Public Health, Community and Field Services Division (Central LA). To advance the conditions that support optimal health and well-being for all.

The Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office
Maria Foster - Mfoster@da.lacounty.gov
The Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office will advance an effective, ethical, and racially equitable system of justice that protects the community, restores victims of crime, and honors the rights of the accused. We are in a learning organization that believes in reduced incarceration and punishment except in circumstances in which it is proportional, in the community's interest, and serves a rehabilitative or restorative purpose.
