

Transitional Housing Beds Available

Alliance for Housing and Healing currently has openings in our HOPWA funded transitional housing program for single, unaccompanied males. This is a 12-month transitional living program in which clients, in accordance with HOPWA regulations, will be required to pay 30% of their monthly income towards their rent.

Location:

Community Empowerment & Resource Consultants, (CERC) and Pathways to Your Future www.ptyf.org has two facilities located in South Los Angeles with single double occupancy rooms, as well as shared common areas. (CERC) provides 24-hour supervision, three meals per day, Wi-Fi, and laundry facilities on site. Participants are encouraged to go about their days if they are involved with other activities such as support groups, work, housing search etc.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must meet HOPWA eligibility criteria:
 - o HIV diagnosis
 - o Income that does not exceed 80% of the HUD's Area Median Income (AMI)
- Clients referred for these transitional housing beds will be required to work with a HOPWA Housing Specialist in the SPA 4/5 area and be actively working on a housing plan.

Referrals must include the following supporting documentation:

- Diagnosis, dated within the last 12 months
- TB Clearance, dated within the 6 months
- COVID-19 testing clearance
- Identification Card (ID)
- Verification of income from the last 30 days
- Homeless status verification of where client spends most of their time (Zip code)
- Consent to Release of Information signed by client
- Enclosed referral form

Referrals are accepted on a first-come first served basis. Referrals can be sent to Christina Mancilla via email at cmancilla@alliancehh.org.