Conference 2017

"RECOVERY:

Healing through Evidence-Based Practices"

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Jerry Tello, M.A., Director of The National Latino Fatherhood & Family Institute and the National Compadres Network, Director of Sacred Circles

Mr. Tello is a therapist, an award winning author, a renown motivational speaker, and an internationally recognized authority on family strengthening, therapeutic healing, internalized oppression, community violence, and cross-cultural issues. He has motivated, trained, and mentored thousands of individuals, organizations, and community groups in the various curriculum that he has authored, addressing the issues of fatherhood, male "rites of passage," relationships, gang violence prevention, teens, pregnancy prevention, fatherhood literacy, and community peace. Mr. Tello is a proud father and grandfather.

PRESENTERS:

Randolph Holmes, M.D., FAAFP, FASAM, Diplomate, American Board of Family Medicine and Addiction Medicine, Medical Director, L.A. CADA

A family doctor and specialist in Addiction Medicine, Dr. Holmes directs the delivery of behavioral healthcare for L.A. CADA. Dr. Holmes sought out the field of addiction and treatment to see "families change and become better." Growing up in a medical family, he enjoys working with patients of different generations and treating the spectrum of co-occurring disorders that often present with substance abuse. As the treatment of alcoholism, drug addiction, and mental health disorders changes during the era of healthcare reform, Dr. Holmes seeks to keep practitioners in the field current with new evidence-based models and practices. He is an engaging and motivating speaker who presents "real-life" information that community workers can employ to better help parents and their children affected by behavioral health issues.

Debbie Murad, LCSW, Clinical Director, L.A. CADA

L. Debbie Murad is an Associate Adjunct Professor at the USC School of Social Work, whose courses include the Domestic Violence Course and clinical practice courses. She is in Private Practice, and a clinical consultant for social service agencies in the Los Angeles area, including acting Clinical Director for Los Angeles Centers for Alcohol and Drug Abuse. She is an active member of the social justice focused Southern California Women's Council with NASW. Her expertise includes the intersectionality of Intimate Partner Violence, trauma and co-occurring substance abuse and mental health issues. Ms. Murad has over a 25 year history in the domestic violence movement. Her professional experience includes creating and managing domestic violence programs, addiction treatment and developing and implementing unique services.

Bob Tyler, BA

LAADC, CADC II, Compliance Officer, L.A. CADA

Bob Tyler has been working in Inpatient, Residential, and Intensive Outpatient levels of care, and in recovery since 1990. He serves as Compliance Officer at L.A. CADA, and recently founded STAT Sobriety Services in order to pursue his mission of helping people get sober who cannot afford rehab. Bob is Past President of the California Association of Alcoholism and Drug Abuse Counselors (CAADAC), a founding Board Member of the California Consortium of Addiction Programs and Professionals (CCAPP), on faculty at Loyola Marymount University Extension in the Alcohol and Drug Studies Program, and owner of Bob Tyler Recovery Services (consulting, CD private practice, public speaking). He authored the EVVY Award-winning book, Enough Already! A Guide to Recovery from Alcohol and Drug Addiction, and has produced several educational DVDs which are shown in nearly 1000 treatment centers across the country, including Craving and Relapse.

PANEL DISCUSSION MODERATOR:

Toni Mosley, MS, MFT

MFT, Supervisor of Therapy Services and Clinical Training, L.A. CADA

Toni Mosley serves as Supervisor of Therapy Services and Clinical Training at L.A. CADA. She has worked with the criminal justice population for over 40 years with roles as supervisor, counselor/therapist and group facilitator. Toni contributed to the Custody to Community Transitional Reentry Program (CCTR) program design and implementation in 2015; Family Foundations, an In Prison Program for Women and Children starting in 2000; and served in five other residential, modified therapeutic communities in California. As a 15-year affiliate of ONTRACK, a statewide training and consulting organization, she took part in the development of the CLAS Competency Protocol, a national model service delivery to enhance cultural competency when working with diverse populations in health services. Toni developed training curriculum on Cultural Competency; approaches with African American and Latina women in treatment; a therapeutic community in a correctional setting; and women-specific therapeutic program designs used statewide.
