

A New Way of Life

Reentry Project

HOUSING & FAMILY REUNIFICATION SERVICES

We offer reentry housing, free legal services, and social services to any Los Angeles incarcerated or formerly incarcerated parent who is looking to reunite with their children, including:

- Safe housing for formerly incarcerated women and children
- Extensive social services, including social work, visitation monitoring, employment services, and sobriety support groups
- Preventative child welfare advocacy before and during DCFS investigations
- Support person advocacy during open dependency court cases, including helping to enroll in services, communicating with case participants, and attending CFT meetings
- Direct representation for seeking additional custody or visitation or defending against petitions in family court
- Direct representation for seeking to terminate guardianships in probate court
- Post-adoption visitation agreements, shared custody agreements, and caretaker affidavits
- Advocacy and letters of support for criminal hearings for release, reduced sentences, cleared warrants, and protective order modification

For more information, please visit anewwayoflife.org

To seek housing and family reunification services, please contact
A New Way of Life Reentry Project
P.O. Box 875288, Los Angeles, CA 90087
(323) 563-3575
info@anewwayoflife.org