

Transitional Housing Beds Available

Alliance for Housing and Healing currently has openings in our HOPWA funded transitional housing program for single unaccompanied women, including transgender women. This is a 12-month transitional living program in which clients, in accordance with HOPWA regulations, will be required to pay 30% of their income towards their rent.

Location:

Behavioral Health Services (BHS) Transitional Housing is in the City of Long Beach with double occupancy rooms and shared common areas. BHS provides three meals per day and laundry facilities on site.

Eligibility Requirements:

- Must meet HOPWA eligibility criteria:
 - o HIV diagnosis
 - o Income that does not exceed 80% of HUD's Area Median Income (AMI)
- Must be able to perform chores and meet curfew.
- Must be able to follow BHS and AHH Policies and Procedures
- Clients referred for these transitional housing beds will be required to work with an Alliance for Housing and Healing Housing Specialist in SPA 8 and be actively working on a housing plan.

Referrals must include the following supporting documentation:

- Diagnosis Form (within the last 12 months)
- TB Test (within the last 6 months)
- Valid Identification Card (ID)
- Verification of Income (within last 30 days)
- Consent to Release Information signed by client.

Referrals are accepted on a first-come-first served basis. To make a referral or for more information, please contact the main line at the Long Beach Office: (562)294-5500 and a staff member will pre-screen and forward information to Intake Coordinator.
