Reclaim Possibility

Kalain Hadley - Khadley@reclaimpossibility.com

Reclaim-Possibility is where the homeless and marginalized populations of Los Angeles county can Reclaim all the Possibilities that life offers!

Food on Foot

Hannah Polizzi - Hannah@foodonfoot.org

Alice Gordon - Alice@foodonfoot.org

Food on Foot is a nonprofit dedicated to assisting our homeless and low-income neighbors in Los Angeles with nutritious meals, clothing, and a fresh start through a life-skills education, full-time employment, and permanent housing.

DPSS

Rosa María Santana - RosaSantana@dpss.lacounty.gov

“Los Angeles County’s Department of Public Social Services (DPSS) is the country’s largest public social services agency. With nearly 14,000 employees, DPSS administers such essential services as Medi-Cal, CalFresh, welfare-to-work programs, General Relief, housing assistance for those experiencing homelessness, and cash assistance programs for low-income individuals and families. In response to the unprecedented needs within our communities, DPSS has recently launched a new community outreach program. Through our community engagement, DPSS strives to provide the public with important updates and information about our vital services and programs. DPSS also aims to work more closely with community partners to enroll even more people in our programs.

PACE

Celia Andrade - CAndrade@pacela.org

Founded in 1976, PACE is a community development corporation that creates economic solutions to meet the challengers of employment, education, housing, environment and business development in the Pacific Asian and other diverse communities.
