Presenters

California Children's Academy (CCA)

Yanira Cardoza - Yanira@californiachildrensacademy.org

California Children's Academy (CCA) is committed to working with families & the community, to ensure the children in our care receive a high-quality early learning experience. Founded in 1971, as a non-profit 501.c.3, CCA helps families become financially independent by providing free & affordable early education to low-income working families. We serve over 700 children a day, at 15 early education centers located throughout Los Angeles County.

North Valley Caring Services (NVCS)

Alycia Monroy - Amonroy@nvesinc.org

The mission of North Valley Caring Services (NVCS) is to empower neighborhood residents to build a vision of their community's future and to actively engage in solving local problems.

Community Organized Relief Effort (CORE)

Christina Quiñonez - Christina.quinonez@coreresponse.org

Natalie Del Toro - Natalie.deltoro@coreresponse.org

CORE saves lives and strengthens communities impacted by or vulnerable to crisis.

Alliance for Housing and Healing

Christina Mancilla - Cmancilla@AllianceHH.org

Michelle Camacho - Mcamacho@alliancehh.org

Tom Wukawitz - Twukawitz@alliancehh.org

As a Committee they are constantly and collectively working together to battle and overcome injustices to promote a healthy atmosphere for staff and clients. They are committed to dismantling discrimination, of any kind, and are passionate about creating sustainable opportunities and implementing policies to cultivate an equitable and empowering environment for diversity and inclusion. Their mission is to provide essential housing and supportive services to people living in poverty with HIV/AIDS or other challenging health conditions.

Housing Rights Center (HRC)

Elana Eden - Eeden@housingrightscenter.org

The Housing Rights Center (HRC) works for justice and equality in housing. HRC provides free housing counseling and workshops to empower tenants and landlords to understand and assert their rights. HRC also investigates and combats discrimination in housing to protect the rights of all residents of Los Angeles and Ventura Counties.
